A First-of-Its-Kind Event

AHRC Nassau is proud to present its first annual conference focused on diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) within the intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) community.

- ▶ The DEI Virtual Conference, “Beyond the Comfort Zone: Understanding and Eradicating Injustice, Racism and Inequality in the Field of Developmental Disabilities,” will be held May 18, 2022 at ahrc.org/deiconference.

Exploring the intersection of disability and race, the DEI Virtual Conference seeks to increase fluency and increased understanding of the history, challenges and opportunities impacting people with I/DD and the staff who work with them. This conference will connect attendees with leaders from the private and public sector ready to share research, case studies, best practices, and feedback on topics including:

- Setting and defining goals for improving DEI in your organization.
- The impact of systemic and historical racism and other barriers on the I/DD sector.
- The intersection of health care disparities for Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) and those with I/DD.
- Creating a pathway for equity and inclusion of BIPOC at all levels of I/DD organizations, including the board of directors.
- The challenges and rewards of employing a neuro-diverse workforce.

Conference planning is underway. To discuss sponsorship opportunities, please contact Nicole Zerillo, Assistant Director, Community Resources, AHRC Nassau, at nzerillo@ahrc.org or 516.626.1075, ext. 1134.
